Residential Burglary 2014-17706

On 08-24-14 at about 12:38 pm Paradise Valley Police Officers responded to assist Safeguard Security who were at the scene of a residential alarm in the 5600 block of N. Homestead Lane. Safeguard Security officers reported that while checking a reported alarm at the residence they discovered forced entry through a door. Upon arrival Officers searched the residence but a suspect was not located. The residence is vacant and no loss is known at this time.

There is no current suspect information for release to the public. Officers are actively investigating this burglary and it will be turned over to the Detective Bureau for follow up.

If you have any information regarding this crime please contact the Paradise Valley Police Department Crime Stopper number at 480-948-7410.

Locking your doors and windows and having an active alarm set when you are away from home is a good first line of defense. Also consider letting your neighbors know when you are going to be away from home, and filling out a Vacation Watch form with the Paradise Valley Police Department. Vacation Watch forms can be completed on our website at <http://az-paradisevalley2.civicplus.com/125/Police> or in person at the Police Department.

If you would like a home security survey or to discuss crime prevention tips and personal safety advice please contact our Community Resource Officer Kevin Albert at kalbert@paradisevalleyaz.gov Officer Albert can also assist you with setting up Neighborhood Watch groups.
