Paradise Valley Police Rounds Up Those with Warrants

Paradise Valley, Arizona - (October 23, 2015) October is Domestic Violence Awareness month and the Town of Paradise Valley's Police Department is recognizing this month by wearing purple pins on their uniforms as well as displaying purple ribbons on marked police vehicles. The Paradise Valley Police Department is going one step further: they are actively seeking individuals with warrants issued for their arrest on domestic violence cases, as well as other types of cases.

Members of the Criminal Investigations Unit and the patrol division were reassigned to a warrant apprehension unit and have already begun combing the Valley for individuals with arrest warrants and other open criminal cases. So far they have made 9 arrests, clearing 13 warrants and one open domestic violence case.

Individuals with active Paradise Valley warrants are reminded that the warrant apprehension unit can appear at your home, school or place of business to make an arrest. Therefore, they are strongly encouraged to contact the Paradise Valley Municipal Court at 480-404-7000 or the Paradise Valley Police Department to resolve their cases and clear their warrants.
