Burglary suspect in custody 2016-10281

On May 18th, 2016 Paradise Valley police detectives arrested Ryman Glenmont Garvey on suspicion of a burglary from vehicle that occurred on April 9th, 2016.

On the night of the burglary, officers received a call from a homeowner stating someone tried to break into their home but could no longer see or hear anybody. Officers searched the area and located an abandoned silver Chevrolet Traverse. The owner of the vehicle did not live near this area. Through the glass officers noticed an item that would belong to a dentist so the officers asked the homeowner if they had any property missing. The homeowner, a dentist, stated items were missing from his vehicle including the item in question located inside the Chevrolet. Officers towed the vehicle to the police station where a search warrant was obtained. Detectives contacted the owner of the vehicle who mentioned her son, Ryman Glenmont Garvey, is the one who usually drives that vehicle.

Officers and detectives went to Garvey's residence in Scottsdale where he was located and arrested without incident. Garvey will be booked into the 4th Avenue jail.
